

Fundraising Volunteer Role Description

Role title	Fundraising Volunteer
Location	Bristol Office, or from home, occasional event work.
Time Commitment	Flexible on a case-by-case basis, dependent on preference.
The role description	To support the SARSAS Fundraising team with raising funds to deliver our work.
What you will be doing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engage in training and induction, in order to represent SARSAS' work and values. • Any combination of the below, as suited to your interests and charity need: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Attend fundraising events on behalf of SARSAS, to raise awareness and funds or support those who are raising funds, e.g. freshers' fairs, half marathon cheer stations etc. ○ Assist in organising and promoting fundraising events and campaigns ○ Help identify, research, and reach out to potential donors and sponsors ○ Support with administrative tasks related to fundraising, e.g. database management, thanking donors ○ Promote fundraising initiatives through social media and other platforms, e.g. through creating graphics on Canva and scheduling content. ○ Collaborate with team members to brainstorm creative fundraising ideas

Skills, experiences and qualities required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good written and verbal communication skills. • Organised and reliable. • Passionate about SARSAS' mission to end sexual violence. • Team player, able to work in close partnership with the SARSAS team. • Respect for the diversity of our colleagues and clients. • Willing to work within our values, procedures and policies. • Friendly, reliable, approachable and a confident team player. • Previous fundraising experience is a plus but not required.
Support offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training and induction to the role • Ongoing, individual support meetings with Corporate Partnership Lead • Training & ongoing continuing development opportunities • Conferences, AGM & organisational away days • Social events • Reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses
What you could get out of it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn new skills and gain experience for related roles • SARSAS can provide you with a reference after you have volunteered for at least six months • Develop awareness and understanding around sexual violence and rape • Be part of a diverse team of volunteers • Opportunities for further training, and expanding knowledge • The satisfaction of knowing you will be making an important difference to the lives of survivors of rape and sexual abuse • Opportunities to get involved in other SARSAS services including campaigning if desired
Other relevant information	This role is open to any interested person and interviews will be arranged individually with the Head of

SARSAS

*Listen.
Believe.
Support.*

	Income Generation, Training and Comms, or the Corporate Partnership Lead.
What to do if you are interested	Further information & questions: If you would like to find out further information about SARSAS and the roles please email fundraising@sarsas.org.uk